

Gentlemen - this is to advise that we are delaying once again our initiative for the changes being planned for the track maintenance positions in Western Canada.

The new implementation date is now planned for November 1, 2010.

The Company will continue to finalize its plans and will advise you further when we are ready to resume negotiations.